Re: Sixth Form Home Study Periods 2024/25: (Year 12)

Dear Student,

Congratulations on performing so well in your GCSE's and joining AMA Sixth Form. We are writing to make you aware that school will end on some days earlier than others.

As you make the transition to your Level 3 courses you will be required to undertake a higher amount of independent study, to build on the knowledge and skills that are delivered in your lessons. Therefore, the below times are designated as home learning periods, where students will be required to work from home:

Day	Home Study Arrangements
Monday (Week 1 and 2)	Year 12 Students leave the site at 12:30pm following their AM lessons if they do not have any timetabled lessons. Students work from home periods 4 and 5
Tuesday (Week 1 and 2)	Year 12 Students leave the site at 1.30pm following their AM lessons if they do not have any timetabled lessons. Students work from home period 5
Wednesday (Week 1 and 2)	Year 12 Students who have no timetabled lessons attend school at 11am for Enrichment. Students leave site at 1.30pm following on from their session.
Friday (Week 1 and 2)	Year 12 Students will arrive for timetabled lessons at 10am.

These timings will be different for any students resitting GCSE English or Mathematics. Any students who are highlighted as requiring additional support through our regular data reviews will also be required to attend additional sessions to the above times.

The arrangements above take place with immediate effect.

Thank you for your continued support and if you would like to discuss these arrangements with a member of the Sixth Form team, please do not hesitate to contact us.
